

Light Painting experience

By Kay Ransom Photography

Have a go, it's easy and fun!

A great way to get the team together!

“Demo/have a go session”

– a quick taster

- Delegates have the opportunity to write their name in the air with torches. This is very informal and aimed at being part of a conference or event.
- People drop in for a go or just to watch.
- Relaxed fun feel and the duration can be tailored to the client's needs.
- Take home – the best image of each participant's work supplied via dropbox post event.

“The Ice Breaker event”

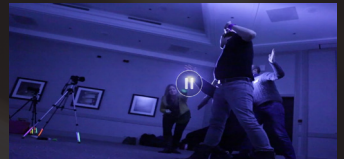

- fun corporate/evening events

- Fun team building - delegates join forces to create images using torches and other lighting props. Aimed at corporate teams / corporate jollies. Creating pictures that encapsulate them as a team or light hearted content e.g. hobbies.
- Teams of 5-10 people per hour. However this format can be tailored per client.
- Duration roughly two hours.
- Take home – all the images that are created, supplied via dropbox post event. An opportunity to be the camera person, lighting person & model, which can be used by the company on their social media.

“The Corporate Event”

– includes competition/ prize / fun teamwork

- 2 teams - creative designs (under supervision) competitive element, fun team building
- Max 20 delegates 2-3 hours – delegates choose teams and are judged at the end apprentice style. Each team gets a photographer/creative to guide them through this fun process.
- Take home – all the images created are supplied via dropbox post event. Delegates will also have an opportunity to work their artistic skills either in front or behind the camera. Teamleaders can use this as an opportunity to observe their staff's skills. Chocolate medals for winning team!
